

Interesting Websites

Music Map <https://www.music-map.com/>

The screenshot shows the Music Map website interface. At the top, there are two tabs: "Music-Map" and "Hozier". Below the tabs, there is a sidebar on the left with the following text: "People who like Hozier might also like these artists.", "The closer two names are, the greater the probability people will like both artists.", "Click on any name to travel along.", and "AdChoices". Below the sidebar, there are three links: "▶ DJ Music Downloads", "▶ Hozier Music", and "▶ Listen Free Music". The main area of the page is a map showing various artists. The artists are represented by text labels scattered across the map. The artists shown include: Tom Odell, Emily Wells, Melody Gardot, Daughter, Alt-J (Δ), Wildcat! Wildcat!, Martin C, Glass Animals, Demo, Mutlu, Bass, Trap, Isaiah Rashad, Snorri Helgason, John Gold, Stafrænn Hákon, Asgeir Trausti, Mark Lanegan Band, Asgeir, Golden Kanine, Rose Kemp, Archie Bronson Outfit, Hozier, Finish Ticket, Murder By Death, Afriquoi, The Opposites, and F.O.O.L.

Type in any musician's name on the homepage and it will give you a map of other artists you might like. The closer the names, the more alike the artist is. Give it a go and see if you can discover new music – it's like having that mate who knows everything about bands in a searchable database on the internet. Not bad at all.

The Wiki Game <https://www.thewikigame.com/group>

The screenshot shows the The Wiki Game website interface. At the top left, there is a logo for "THE WIKI GAME" with a blue octopus character. Below the logo, there is a button that says "HIRE THE WIKI GAME!". To the right of the logo, there is a "SPEED RACE" button with a small octopus icon. Below the "HIRE THE WIKI GAME!" button, there is a section for "THE WIKI GAME iPad APP!" with a screenshot of the app. The main area of the page is a "SPEED RACE" game. At the top right of the game area, it says "CURRENT GAME" and "113 seconds left in current game.". Below that, there is a "START (click to join)" button. The goal of the game is "KAZAKHSTAN" and "DAVE CHAPPELLE". Below the goal, there is a link: "Dave Chappelle at wikipedia.org".

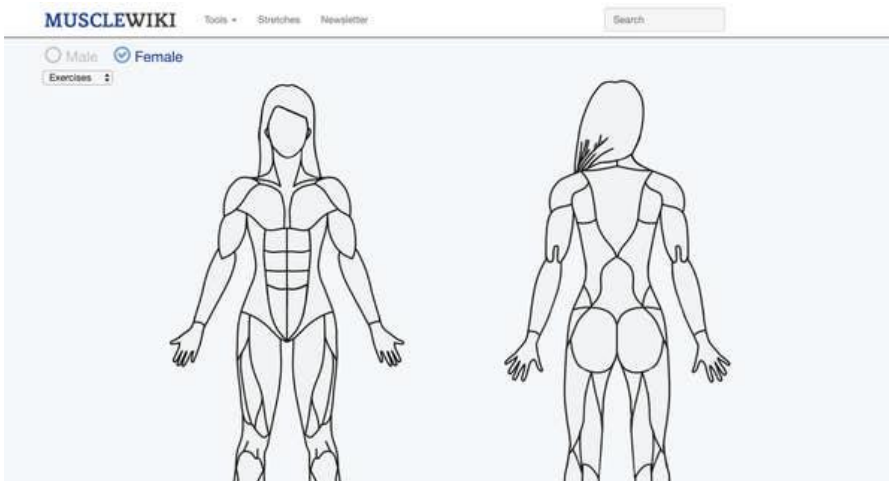

Simple: get from one Wikipedia page to another in the quickest time period or the least clicks. You'll need to use your judgement here to decide which link will take you closest to the destination (while also getting a tour around some of the more fascinating and unique pages of Wikipedia).

Camel Camel Camel <https://uk.camelcamelcamel.com/>

This website, surprisingly, has nothing to do with camels. It's an easy to use Amazon price tracker. Throw in a url for an Amazon product and it tells you how the price has changed over the years. You might realise you're buying at the wrong time.

MuscleWiki <https://musclewiki.com/>

MuscleWiki provides an interactive diagram of all the muscles you aren't moving now that you're confined to your apartment. Just click on a muscle, and the site will suggest ways to exercise it.

TED www.ted.com

What We Like

- Cutting edge information.
- Lectures on an array of topics.

What We Don't Like

- Video format not always suitable.
- Unusual rating system.

TED has become a powerful organization in spreading ideas and knowledge. The nonprofit organization hosts conferences around the world where people of all walks of life share their amazing ideas and experiences through short speaking gigs.

If you have a pair of headphones handy, you should definitely check out this site. You can find video talks on practically any subject you're interested in.

Sources:

- <https://www.buzzfeed.com/hayleyrochelletillett/interesting-websites-to-visit>
- <https://www.dailyege.ie/websites-you-never-knew-existed-2008262-Mar2015/>
- <https://www.lifewire.com/cool-websites-to-look-at-when-bored-3486362>